

Do you work with research groups?

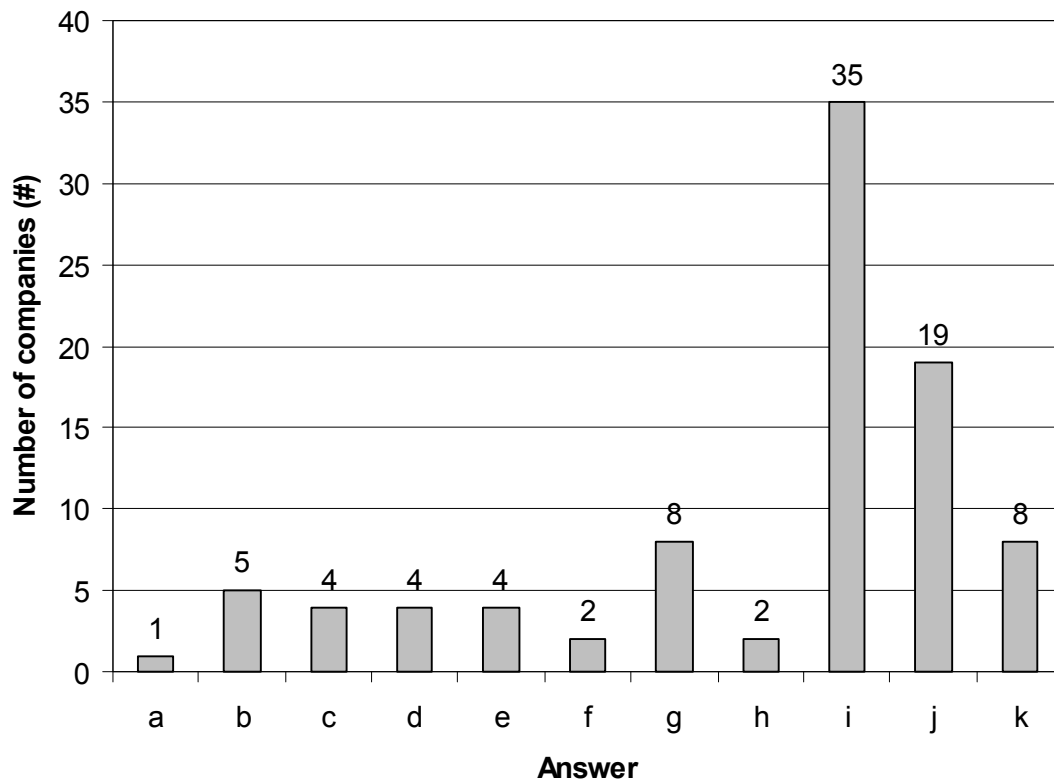

- a. No, entirely in-house; own resources
- b. In house as a spin-off from a research institute / university
- c. Yes, with other private service companies
- d. Yes, with university departments
- e. Research Institutes
- f. Other

Most institutes collaborate with university departments (40 out of 48 answers). Followed by research institutes (32) and private and service company's (22). Entirely in house research was done by 2 institutes, in house research as spin-off from a research institute or university at 7 companies.

In which sector is your company active?

- a. Genomic – equipment / reagent provider
- b. Genomic – diagnostic services
- c. Genomic – other
- d. Pharmaceuticals – vaccines
- e. Pharmaceuticals – therapeutics
- f. Pharmaceuticals – other
- g. Veterinary services – disease diagnostics
- h. Veterinary services – other
- i. Animal breeding – genetic improvement
- j. Animal breeding – animal production
- k. Other

Most of the Institutes that participated are active in animal breeding, 59 % of which 38 % in genetic improvement and 21 % in animal production. The other sectors; genomics, pharmaceuticals, veterinary services and ‘others’ were each represented by ca. 10 % of the respondents.